

Turn up the VOLume

By Annapina Iannelli

September and October 2011

I hope you are enjoying the newsletter and I still encourage you to try the things I propose to you and I remind you to send me your opinions about new things to do, for example if you have travelled to a new place, tried a new bar, a new club, etc.

It would be great if you could send me your feedback. Thank you!!

Find us on Facebook : " Everything is Possible "
Follow us on Twitter : " eispossible "

<http://volunteersturnupthevolume.blogspot.com/>

WHAT'S ON IN LONDON

Vintage Fashion Fair: In this famous vintage fair you will find the finest collection of vintage fashion items like clothes, hats, handbags, shoes, jewellery and textiles from 1800's - 1980's. The London Vintage Fashion fair also offers a fantastic mixture of new vintage fashion material and new fashion clothing and accessories.

Where: Cecil Sharp House, 2 Regents Park Road, London NW1 7AY. The closest underground station is Camden Town.

When: 11th September and 9th October, from 11am to 5pm.

Cost: £3.

For More Info: www.vintagefashionfairlondon.co.uk

Speciality & Fine Food Fair: In this amazing fair you will find new inspirations and ideas about food but the thing that I really want to try is the Speciality Chocolate Fair. There you can taste and discover all the finest chocolate from all around the world and there will be also an event called Speciality Chocolate Live where there will be a show by famous chocolatiers and chefs. You can also apply on the website linked below to have a free budge but there are limited budes so you should apply as soon as possible.

Where: Olympia Grand Hall, Hammersmith Road, London, W14 8UX.

When: 4th, 5th and 6th of September.

Cost: £3.

For More Info: www.specialityandfinefoodfairs.co.uk

The Mayor's Thames

Festival: This festival is largest outdoor art festival in London that brings all the communities together. The celebration will be huge: there will be music, dancing, street arts, art installations, food and feasting; and during the night the final event will be an illuminated night carnival followed by a fireworks display. Moreover there will be two 3d screenings of the movies 'Born to be Wild' and 'Under the Sea' that you can enjoy for free for this occasion. However if you are in London or you are planning to go to London during these days you should definitely join the festival because I think it would be absolutely amazing.

Where: Southbank Centre, Banske and Embankment, Lambeth, London, SE1 8XX.

When: Sunday 10th and Monday 11th of September from 12 noon to 10 pm.

Cost: Free.

For More Info: www.thamesfestival.org

Miro at the Tate Modern:

Why not visit the Tate Modern and enjoy the work of the Joan Miro, one of the greatest Surrealist painters. There will be over 150 paintings, sculptures and drawings from over six decades of Miro's career including works from moments of the most turbulent moments of the European history. If you want you can also join the guided tour, every Fridays and Saturdays at 12.15, paying £5 more the price of the ticket.

Where: Tate Modern, Banske Power Station, 25 Sumner Street, Banske, London SE1.

When: from the 1st to the 11th of September.

Cost: £15.50.

For More Info: www.tate.org.uk

WHAT'S ON IN LEEDS

Thriller Live: This spectacular concert has been created to celebrate the career of Michael Jackson since its start with the Jackson 5. This concert will contain all the most famous song of this artist from 'ABC' and 'I Want You Back' by Jackson 5 to the most recent 'Smooth Criminal', 'Thriller', 'Billie Jean' and many more. In over two hours of nonstop concert the performers will celebrate the greatest entertainer of all time recreating the same atmosphere of the concerts of this great artist.

Where: The Grand Theatre & Opera House, 44 New Briggate, Leeds city centre.

When: Thursday 1st of September 7.30pm, Friday 2nd of September 5pm and 8.30pm, Saturday 3rd of September 4pm and 8pm.

Cost: The cheapest ticket is £16.00.

For More Info:

http://www.leedsgrandtheatre.com/thriller_live_unid0a13_page.aspx

Reetsweet Fair at the Corn Exchange: Another amazing fair will be in Leeds for you at the Corn Exchange. Reetsweet Fair offers a great selection of accessories and handmade crafters from various artist and designer. So, if you like fairs, if you love to walk between the stalls of the markets and buy handmade items, this is absolutely a great event that you should not miss! As you know the Corn Exchange is situated in the Leeds city centre so you can easily walk there if you are around the city during this week end and you can enjoy this fair for free.

Where: Leeds Corn Exchange.

When: Saturday and Sunday 1st and 2nd of October, from 11am to 4.30pm.

Cost: Free Entry.

For More Info: <http://reetsweet.blogspot.com/>

Light Night Leeds: This event is based on the European concept of Nuit Blanche and Notte Bianca already present in other European countries such as France and Italy. This is an annual art festival that will take place in the city centre of Leeds during the night in various venues including theatres, galleries, shopping arcades, museums, and city streets, where you will find 70 different installations, performances and activities to participate in.

Where: Leeds city centre, various venues.

When: Friday 7th October from 5pm to late night.

Cost: Free.

For More Info: www.lightnightleeds.co.uk

Damien Hirst exhibition: At the Leeds Art Gallery you can find this beautiful exhibition of the works of Damien Hirst. This artist has a strong link with the city of Leeds as he grew up so it could be interesting to see something very related to the city where we are living at the moment.

Where: Leeds Art Gallery, Leeds city centre.

When: September and October.

Cost: Free.

For More Info:

http://www.leeds.gov.uk/artgallery/Leeds_Art_Gallery/Exhibitions.aspx

Ghost in the Machine exhibition: This exhibition is part of a biggest event called Love arts festival that promotes the arts in the local and difficult environment. Ghost in the Machine is an exhibition of images and objects relating to Freud's theories that consist in creating a space composed of objects out of context. I personally think this will be an extremely interesting experience both visiting the exhibition as well as get more information about these theories.

Where: Shine Business Centre, Harehills Road, Leeds LS8 5HS.

When: from Monday 10th October for all the month. from 9am to 5pm.

Cost: Free.

For More Info: www.loveartsleeds.co.uk

WHAT'S ON IN BRADFORD

Calendar Girls at Alhambra Theatre:

This is a great opportunity to enjoy a very British comedy and if you are still around Leeds and Bradford in that period you should definitely go. Calendar Girls is based on a film with the same name that is based on a true story of a group of women from Yorkshire who decides to produce a nude calendar to raise money for leukemia research. The play is very funny and very enjoyable even if the story looks sad, I definitely suggest you to go.

Where: Alhambra Theatre, Morley Street, Bradford city centre.

When: from Monday 17th to Saturday 22nd of October. From Monday to Saturday at 7.30pm, on Wednesday matinee at 2pm and Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Cost: The cheapest ticket is £10.50.

For More Info: <http://www.bradford-theatres.co.uk/event/calendar-girls>

SALTAIRE FESTIVAL

8th — 18th September 2011

Saltaire Brewery Beer Festival: At this festival you will find a range of beers from all around UK and for the fans of cider there will be a whole stand full of ciders of all kinds including flavored ones. The ticket is £5 and it includes the program, a souvenir glass and the first pint. You can book your ticket online if not there are 150 tickets available at the door.

Where: Saltaire Brewery & Visitor Centre, County Works, Dockfield Road, Saltaire, Bradford, BD17 7AR.

When: Friday 16th September from 4pm to 11pm, Saturday 17th September from 12pm to 11pm.

Cost: £5.

For More Info: www.saltairfestival.co.uk

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Education and Culture DG

'Youth in Action' Programme