About the place & the organisation

I-ZONE is a not-for-profit musical and cultural training organisation based in Pesaro, Italy.

I-ZONE's training activities revolve around music and take place in five different training environments:

Pesaro is situated on the east coast of Italy, and is one of the biggest city of the region "Marche" with about 92.000 inhabitants.

Based here is the highest concentration of furniture industries in Italy. But Pesaro is more famous for its beautiful beaches and historical monuments, that's why tourism represent a very important economic resource as well.

The cultural scene of the city is animated every year by two important appointments: the Pesaro Film Festival and the Opera Rossini festival (to do remember to the composer who was born here). The most important sport is probably basketball and you can find here a very successful basket team, known as Scavolini Pesaro.
